Grey Lag Is Easy Winner in Mount Kisco Stakes at Empire City Track Tribune Classified Advertish

Rancocas Colt, Under Heavy Impost, Canters to Victory

Letterman, Only Other Starter, Unable to Press Four-Year-Old; Bon Homme, After Being Races First Heat in 2:03% Scratched in Feature, Wins Columbia Handicap

By W. J. Macbeth

Grey Lag, the four-year-old colt of the Rancocas Stable, proved himself one of the few truly great handicap horses in training by the ease with which he galloped off to victory in the Mount Kisco Stakes, at a mile and seventy yards, which was the feature of yesterday's entertain-this uncertain season of three-year-old form. But the ease with which Grey Lag, the only horse that measures close to Exterminator at anything approximating weight for age, took Letterman to the cleaners despite the big lump of weight conceded, stamped the Ran rocas star a bright prospect for the big handicaps to be decided next month at Saratoga.

Grey Lag, under stout restraint for the entire journey and under a plain pull from half way round the far bend to the wire, simply buck-jumped that mile and seventy yards in 1:45-25. He seemed up to record-breaking form had Letterman been able to make him stretch his neck.

As a horse race this feature, which was worth $3,400 to the winner, left much to be desired. Good as any thoroughbred may be, he appears at his best only when doing his best. And best only when h mpost of 125 pounds, did litter than canter from start to iginally Named to Start ngs are more sad than a New York County courts.

Hephaistos broke in front, but at the addock turn Bon Homme went around im speedily and drew off to a lead of couple of lengths. There Andy Schuta couple of lengths. There Andy Schuttinger rated his mount, with the other three well bunched, for the first-three quarters, where Two Feathers gave up the fight. Circling the far bend Hephaistos closd some ground on the pacemaker. He got to Bon Homme's saddle girths swinging into the stretch, but there Schuttinger let out a lap and drew off again to win easily. Hephaistos hung on gamely under a drive until within the sixteenth, where he hung slightly.

R. T. Wilson's Tall Timber, which won the Holly Purse, the curtain number, blossomed out as a most prominent candidate for the juvenile championship. This is one of the three highly regarded Campfire colts in the keeping of Tom Healy, who returned from Saratoga especially to saddle him. Tall Timber, which suffered a serious attack of influenta last spring, was known to be possessed of exceptional speed, but his ability to go the route was questioned. In two starts tional speed, but his ability to go the route was questioned. In two starts at Empire City he died out after a brilliant burst of early foot.

Undoubtedly the good colt was short because of his recent illness. Yesterday Tall Timber proved beyond question that he can carry his speed five furlongs or more. He was hooked up with John E. Madden's good Sandy Hatch, and on the outside of him, but simply raced the other into the ground. Tall Timber's victory was popularly received, as he was the last of four winning favorites. winning favorites.

Favorite Loses in Old Hickory

There was but one startling upset, this when Lord Herbert, the heavily played choice, finished absolutely last of the field of five in the fold Hickory Purse, at a mile and a quarter. The second choice, Mra. William Jeffords's Brave, stole a long lead, forced the pace and held on gamely in a thrilling finish against Moody. The latter, taken back off the early pace, closed with a rush, but failed by a single stride to get up. This was the only eyelash finish of the day.

W. H. Snyder's High C upheld the honor of the long shots when he traipsed home five longths in front ni a field of fourteen in the second race, at about six furlongs. All the wise ones were looking up the chimney as the winner's price skyrockoted from 6 to 1 to 12 to 1. Equator, a 15 to 1 shot, nosed out Pastoral, which finished stoutly, was shuffled back badly on the turn. Frank Farrell's Sea Sand, which was backed from 8 to 1 to 3 to 1, had no excuse. He was off winging and set the pace for nearly a half mile. The day opened auspiclously when Scare Crow, under Clarence Kummer's hustling ride, came from away back to win the opening dash at five furlongs. Scare Crow had to be much the best, as he was carried wide all the way. Susiana, a 10 to 1 shot, forced the pace and hung on gamely when challenged. James Buller's Noon Glide, quoted at 70 to 1, made up a lot of greund frem a very unfavorable start and text the short and of the purse.
